

Department of English
Two One-Year-Only Instructor positions

The University of South Alabama's Department of English invites applications for two (2) non-tenure track (9-month, one-year-only) full-time Instructor positions, starting on August 15, 2025. The two Instructors hired will teach primarily freshman composition courses. Departmental, college, university, and/or community service also expected.

Required: An MA in English or closely related field with a minimum of 18 graduate hours in English and evidence of strong commitment to teaching college freshmen and sophomores.

To apply, send by email the following: vita, cover letter, one-page teaching statement, and names of three references to Dr. Patrick Shaw, Search Committee Chair, c/o Ms. Shawn Ash (sash@southalabama.edu).

Applicants invited for a campus interview will arrange to have official graduate and undergraduate transcripts sent directly by the Registrars of all colleges and universities from which a degree was received to the Search Committee Chair:
